NCSSA Nationals - Day 2

No races

The 2007 NCSSA Nationals never completed a race today.

There was no wind in the morning, but the afternoon offered a little hope. Sander Sundberg got the fleet on the water at 12:15pm, and a race started at 1:10pm. Course was a W3+ at 340 degrees. The race was led by the "one man show" MO-59 Scott Tillema, T-17 Joe Schaub, I-42 Sam Rogers and B-217 Joe Skotarzak. The race committee did what it could to stay out ahead of the shifts, but they couldn't fight time. After two and one half hours three guns blew as I-42 and MO-59 were a few hundred yards from the finish line.

Class Flag gun for race 2 is 8:30am. The wind forecast is for 3-7mph out of the west. Check the ASC website for final results.
