Spring Regatta season is here!

The C-Scow class kicks off the season every year with a flurry of regattas (and I'm not referring to the frozen type). The die hard regatta fan could skip hop their way through the Midwest from late April to Memorial Day and race at a different event each weekend.

The season got under way with the Daytona 500 of spring regattas - Rush Creek YC's Black Tie Regatta. Jamie Kimball is settling in to the full-time skipper seat. He drove the I-17 with brother Rob to victory over Kent Haeger B-12 and 16 other C-scow teams. The Lotawana caravan brought everything but the kitchen sink down to Dallas with ten boats in attendance! Take a guess what fleet is the leading the early Team standings? For complete results go to cscow.org.

Last weekend the Island Bay YC hosted their Spring Regatta. Reports haven't been submitted, but check back to cscow.org soon.

This weekend the run for the roses will bring sailors to Cedar Lake, IN for the 46th annual Ice Breaker Regatta. Check out the NOR and to register online.

If you go to Cedar this weekend, you might as well complete the double header and go to Cedar (WI) next weekend (10-11 May). Their spring regatta has become the Free Regatta! CLYC wants you to come race for FREE, and to enjoy their FREE beer. Contact edeckert136@gmail.com to find out more.

Think spring and find your way to one or more events this year. Go to cscow.org for the complete schedule.
