NCSSA National Championship Regatta

Barkow 1st, Keck 2nd and Evensen 3rd

The 29th NCSSA National Championship is in the books. Augie Barkow V11 won his third Nationals sailing with Jeff and Amy Niedziela. In second place was Peter Keck OO88 sailing with his brother Dan and Robin Dale. In third place was Leif Evensen OO3 (age 20) sailing with Alex Jerred (age 17) and Nick Clements (age 16). This was the first C-Scow regatta that Leif ever skippered, and Alex and Nick's first C-Scow period. Great way to start out guys!

This was a big regatta for junior sailors. The NCSSA pays their registration fee and they in turn showed up in droves. Along with the OO3 team performance we also had Vincent Porter I113 with Coye Harret finishing in tenth place. And George Kutschenreuter B11 won the last race. Its great to see so many "kids" in C-Scows!

Top Ten Standings

1. V11 Augie Barkow - 22 points
2. OO88 Peter Keck - 37
3. OO3 Leif Evensen - 41

The PYC put on a world class event. The club membership went out of their way to make sure the sailors felt welcome from the moment they arrived to the second they packed up for home. A special thanks to Nancy Niedziela - she made sure every detail was in place and the regatta went on without a hitch. She was helped by the rest of the Niedziela family, the Barkow's, the Schewda's and many more. Thank you PYC for making the fleet feel welcome.

A big "thank you" is also due to PRO Chip Mann and his adept staff. The comment was made at awards ceremony that, "there are probably eight guys on the Race Committee that could've run this event." There was a lot of race committee talent in Pewaukee, and we made them work hard with our eager starting habits.

Next year's Nationals are in Chautauqua, NY. It's a great piece of water that's worth the effort to get to. Start planning now for Father's Day 2010 in Chautauqua.
