C-Scow Inland Championship

There are just sixty-nine hours until the warning signal for race one of the 2009 ILYA Annual Championship! But don't fret if you haven't registered yet as there is still time to get your team (and your boat) to Green Lake.

The Inland Championship is the biggie - 103 years of history. Win this regatta and forever you'll be able to adorn your sail with the coveted RED "C" emblem. As of publication there are 38 boats pre-registered, and only three of them are past Inland Champions. The odds could be in your favor to become the forth. Of those 38, thirteen are Junior sailors.

REGISTER NOW - Don't forget that registration is FREE for our Junior sailors (thanks to the ILYA Raffle Fund and the NCSSA). There are more Junior C-boaters then all of the other adult ILYA fleets combined! Remember, you must pre-register to take advantage of this deal. Don't expect to show up in Green without registering and no checkbook.

Race for the Vice Commodore's Rum - Rick Trester threw down the gauntlet by stating that, "No one will bring more boats than Cedar Lake, WI. I'll bet my rum on it!" Team Beulah has stepped up to claim that handle of rum. They currently have nine boats signed up, Okauchee has seven, and Cedar has six boats. I guess we know what motivates some of you!

Inland Race Coverage

For those of you with a valid excuse for not traveling to Green Lake there will be plenty of opportunities to follow from your home computer. CWO will provide daily racing recaps. ILYA Scowlines will provide end of the day results, and new this year is from the Inland is sailgroove - look for live shots, interviews and loads of reporting from both the C and E race courses. Thanks to Kent Haeger for providing a boat to make this happen.

The m25mud Twitter machine will be live on the water too. If all goes according to plan, expect tweets from the race course and top finishers as they happen!

WYA Championship

A Schmidt family victory

Forty-three of Wisconsin's best C boat sailors converged on Delavan Lake for the Wisconsin Yachting Association Championship. The weather made the regatta very interesting as heavy rains challenged the fleet for both races on Friday. On Saturday and Sunday the weather brought heavy winds. The fleet pushed the limits of their boats to try and win this coveted championship. In all six masts came down this weekend as the big wind and waves pounded the fleet. In the end E89 Steve Schmidt won his Fifth W.Y.A. title which is an amazing feat when you look at the tough competition year in and year out. Steve was sailing with Tim and Wendy Schmidt. Second was B12 Kent

Haeger and Mike Greenson. Third was held by V45 Andy Burdick and Michael Lee. The Delavan Yacht club did a great job as usual putting on a first class event.

WMYA - Cam cleans their clocks

Cam McNeil SL11 earned three bullets and left no doubt to whom was the WMYA Champion for 2009. Second was Ted Keller TO9, and third was Glen Walborn SL0.
