NCSSA National Championship Regatta

Pewaukee Yacht Club - June 19-21

Still debating if you should attend the 2009 C-Scow National Championships?

With only four weeks to go until the event of the year, now is the time to start making your final plans to secure your spot for the 2009 National Championships. I know plenty of you are still procrastinating but let me review the three reasons:

1. Because of time away from home
2. Some sort of crew issues.
3. Even more important, the issue of being away from work

Well now is the time to get creative and start figuring out how do I get to the event?

First off, the Championship is being held at Pewaukee as there are some great C boating lakes very close to here like; Nagawicka, Okauchee, Labelle, Cedar, North Lake, Beulah, Geneva and Browns Lake. I would be very surprised if at least 25 boats did not come out of this area! These are lakes that you can stay at home each evening to ease the pain of the big regatta and sleep in your own bed. note also that Housing is available to all of you from this region!)

Second, if you have a crew issue get on the "buddy" program and start talking the event up with some of your other skippers and crews to put together a championship team to come to the event! (Just ask Andert as it worked great for him at the 2008 Invitational the last time he tried this!) It is too good of an event not to work the "Buddy" system to get to the regatta! (Maybe Andy would like to sail with one of his customers for the event!)

I know all this sounds good but you are still saying it's the economy! Well I fully understand that it is tough out there and people are going through tough times! But this is exactly why you need to be at Pewaukee to let loose and have some fun while easing your mind of all the other issues!

This will be a great event as we plan to make everyone, and I mean EVERYONE, feel welcome and at home

And if all else fails, put it on the Underhill's bill and really enjoy the regatta with a Bloody Mary and a steak sandwich and... a steak sandwich!

See all of you soon in Pewaukee!

Again still spreading the good news,
Irwin R. Fletcher

The PYC put together a package that includes Registration, 3 daily Lunches, and 3 Saturday Dinners for $150 if you register by June 10th. Details can be found at cscow.org.

ILYA Invitational

Minnetonka Yacht Club - July 17-19

The C-Fleet lakes of Minnesota would like to take you on in a challenge! Minnesota vs. the rest of the ILYA!

- The winner will be decided at the Saturday night OPEN "E-boat" BAR
- That's right, when you have to decide whether to cover E-1 or M-35 (already pre-registered masters) it will make you think twice.

If there is ever an event to loan your boat to a fellow ILYA sailor this is it!

- All ILYA Youth Sailors (under 25) will have their registration fee waved if they pre-register
- All 1st time Adult ILYA sailors will also have their registration fee waved if they pre-register

Free beer all day - everyday!

- Thursday night Skippers Meeting - Free Beer
- Friday immediately after sailing - Free Beer
- Along with free drink coupons to a famous watering hole
- Saturday at dinner - Free Beer, Free Wine, & Free Cocktails

Yes you are reading that right. If you think we'll run out of adult beverages early - then you have never been to a party on our Island - I suggest you come experience it for yourself.

Save the Black Tie Regatta!!!

What happens if a Yacht Club puts on a world class event, but no one showed up..? The Rush Creek Yacht Club is asking this question as no C-Scows raced the Black Tie this year.

The Black Tie Regatta has over four decades of history with the C-Scow fleet. If you've ever been a C-Scow sailor odds are you've been to Dallas in the springtime at least once, or you've heard countless stories from those that have. The Black Tie Regatta is part of C-Scow lore - the road trips south to Dallas, the big waves and wind, Culpepper's, the famous Black Tie dinner, camping at the RCYC, the friends, the stories.

The RCYC is debating the future of this event. If you want this tradition to continue contact the RCYC and let them know your ideas, or make a commitment to show up in April 2010.
